Opening doors for the handicapped involves more than just being polite.

It involves giving them jobs. By hiring the handicapped you do yourself a favor. You'll get skilled people who will be dependable and hard working. Some of the best attendance records, in many businesses, belong to handicapped employees. Next time you have a job opening, fill it with a handicapped worker. You'll help yourself by helping someone else.

Hire the handicapped.

DO COLLEGES HELP BUSINESS AS MUCH AS BUSINESS HELPS COLLEGES?

Yes, they do. But not in the same proportion. Business contributes about 15% of the total voluntary support received by colleges. But today, business gets half the college-trained men and women who are employed. Tomorrow, it will need even more.

As a result, businessmen should think seriously about increasing the level of corporate giving to education. Can you think of a better investment?

For the latest national figures on corporate giving to higher education, write on your letterhead for "CFAE Survey of Corporation Support of Higher Education," and enclose $2.00 to help cover costs. Mail to: Council for Financial Aid to Education, 6 East 45th Street, New York, N.Y. 10017.

Give to the college of your choice. Now.
